RULES, REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE (SEWER)

- d) Should the actual cost of the extension be less than the estimated cost, the Company shall refund the difference as soon as the actual cost has been ascertained. Should the actual cost of an extension exceed the estimated cost, the applicant will pay to the Company the difference between the actual cost and the estimated cost as soon as such actual cost is determined by the Company and the applicant is notified in writing of the amount of such difference.
- e) For each Customer over the stated number of prospective Customers taking service from such extension during the first ten (10) years after the date of the extension agreement, the Company shall refund to the party who has contracted and paid for an extension an amount equal to one and one-half (1-1/2) times the total sewer bill of such additional Customer for the first year of service. Such refund shall, at the option of the Company, be paid in one lump sum on the 31st day of the year in which the first year's service to such additional Customer shall have been completed or in ten (10) equal annual installments; each unpaid installment shall bear interest payable by the Company at the rate of five percent (5%) per annum from such date until paid.
- f) The sum of the refunds made by the Company shall in no event exceed in the aggregate the amount paid to the Company for the extension, plus interest if the refunds are paid in installments.
- g) No interest shall be paid by the Company on the applicant's payment or on any unrefunded balances, except as above specified.
- h) At the expiration of said ten (10) year period, the refund account will be closed and no further refunds will be made.
- i) The right to receive refunds under this rule shall be personal to the contracting applicant and shall not be assignable as collateral security or otherwise except with the written consent of the Company.

RULES, REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE (SEWER)

- j) All decisions in connection with the manner of installation of said main extension, the type of materials to be used therein, and the maintenance thereof after the same shall have been constructed, shall be and remain in the exclusive control of the Company, and such main extension when completed and placed in service shall be and remain the property of the Company.
- k) The Company reserves the right to further extend its sewer mains from and beyond each sewer main extension made under this rule. The applicant or the applicant's agent paying for an original extension shall not be entitled to any refund for the attaching of Customers to any further extensions.
- l) All main extensions, except those that may be installed by the Company without the necessity of a contract or by special contract, will be made by contract with the applicant in accordance with the conditions of this particular rule above outlined. A written form of main extension agreement required under this rule shall be made available to all parties requesting and making extensions under this rule.
- m) Any main extensions required to serve more than six (6) single family home Customers or any number of any other type of Customer will be made only by special contract with the Company.

11.00 EXTENSION OF SEWER MAINS (COLLECTION SEWERS)

11.01 The Company will extend its sewer mains within its service area along a street, highway, or other right of way to a point adjacent to the property line of any single family home Customer or group of Customers not exceeding six (6) in number, no more than two (2) of whose properties are under common ownership, on the following terms and conditions:

- a) Upon application being made for an extension of a sewer main the Company shall determine the necessary size of main and shall make an estimate of the cost of the proposed extension, including pipe, wyes, stubs and all other materials, and all other costs such as labor, permits, etc., including the Company's expense for supervision, engineering, insurance, tools and equipment, accounting and other overhead expenses.
- b) If the estimated cost of the extension is not greater than one and one-half (1-1/2) times the Company's estimate of annual revenue to be received from Customers who will immediately attach to the extension, the Company will finance and make the extension without the requirement of any payment. Customers will be considered as immediately attaching Customers if at the time the application for extension is made, they shall sign contracts for at least one (1) year's service and will guarantee to take sewer service at their premises within thirty (30) days after the extension is completed. Estimates of annual revenue shall be made by the Company and shall be based on the experience of the Company regarding use of water by other Customers similarly situated.
- c) If the estimated cost of the proposed extension exceeds one and one-half (1-1/2) times the Company's estimate of the first year annual revenue, the applicant or the applicant's authorized agent shall contract for such extension and shall pay in advance to the Company the estimated cost of the extension.
